"Speed-Up" Order Sent to Congress

President Urges Speaker Clark and House Leader Kitchin to Hurry Legislation.

President Wilson sent a "speed-up" order to Congress today. At a conference with Speaker Clark and House Leader Kitchin the President urged that Congress hurry its legislative program.

While promising all possible co-operation, House leaders did not sustain the President's hope for adjournment of Congress before the national convention.

In a general discussion of the legislative situation with the House leaders, the President was presented with a plan to combine all revenue legislation in one bill. This would include revision of the income tax, repeal of war stamp taxes, creation of a tariff commission, taxes on munitions and an anti-dumping clause. The President preferred to have the tariff commission hastened by a single bill, but the House leaders practically won the President's consent to include it in the omnibus revenue measure.

Clark and Kitchin told the President the immediate legislative program was as follows:

Repeal of the free sugar schedule tomorrow.

Consideration of the immigration bill, Philippine independence.

Naval program, probably about May 1. Leader Kitchin told the President that work on the revenue bill would begin in about a fortnight. The President urged the leaders particularly to expedite both the army and navy preparedness bills.

"I told the President I couldn't see how we could possibly adjourn much before September 1," said Speaker Clark at the conference. He told the President that the twelve appropriation bills still remaining, at the best, would take twelve weeks, not counting time necessary for the shipping bill, rural credit, Philippine and Porto Rican independence, preparedness, and revenues.

He also told the President "we would simply have to take up the Immigration bill," said the Speaker. "If we don't the House is so insistent it would simply run away from us."

Brumbaugh Out For Presidency

Action Marks Final Steps in Plan
To Challenge Penroses' Leadership.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—Governor Brumbaugh has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for President.

He did so in the course of a letter to Henry G. Wasson, national committee man from Pennsylvania, who had written to the governor urging such action. The governor's announcement and the exchange of letters between himself and Mr. Wasson marked the final steps in the plan to challenge the leadership of Senator Penrose. The fighting will be done throughout the State in the May primaries.

The prizes will be the control of the delegation to the national convention, of the nomination for office, and of the State committee. Opposing tickets will be set up at large and for the various districts.

BRAZIL MAY USE INTERNED VESSELS

Foreign Secretary Called Home to Prepare Neutrality Edict.

RIO DE JANEIRO, March 13.—At a conference in the palace at which President Bras presided, the ministers of finance and public works and the director of the Brazil Lloyd were present, and discussed the utilization of the German steamships interned in Brazilian harbors.

Dr. Lauro Muller, minister of foreign affairs, on leave of absence, has been urgently recalled by President Bras. It is hinted that Dr. Muller's resignation is possible because of his strong pro-German sentiments, but in well-informed quarters it is asserted that he has been recalled to settle current matters, including the appointment of Brazilian delegates to the Pan-American financial meeting in Buenos Aires, and a proclamation of the neutrality of Brazil in the war between Germany and Portugal.

Says Dye Shortage May Force Change in Flag

ST. LOUIS, March 13.—"A radical change in the colors of the United States flag is threatened by the dye shortage," according to dye experts in St. Louis. Paul Lustig, head of one of the largest dye works in the West, said so.

The supply of red aniline in America is exhausted, and blue dye soon will be a relic of the past. He predicted that if the war continued another year the red stripes and blue background in the American flag would have to be dispensed with.

CELEBRATING THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison
Haycock Observe Anniversary in Georgetown.

With practically all of their children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren in attendance at the family home at 3000 Q street northwest, Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison Haycock, two of the oldest residents of Georgetown, are celebrating today the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding.

Mr. Haycock was a merchant in Georgetown in the old days of the West Indian trade, when the town was a great commercial center. Like many of the other old merchants, Mr. Haycock retired with the decline of the clipper ships and the decay of industry along the old water front. For the past eight years he has been connected with the American Security and Trust Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Haycock are well known among the oldest Georgetown families, having settled there as bride and bridegroom just after the civil war, when Georgetown was a separate municipality, and one of the largest trade centers on Chesapeake bay and its tributaries.

Had War Romance.

Their marriage at Appomattox, Va., March 13, 1865, followed an interesting war romance. Four years before, at the age of eighteen, Mr. Haycock enlisted in Company H, Second Virginia Cavalry, which was encamped at that time not far from his home at Langley, Fairfax county.

His soldier chum during the war was Thomas E. Le Grand, lieutenant of Company H, through whom Mr. Haycock later became acquainted with the lieutenant's sister, Margaret Washington Le Grand, who became his bride, after the surrender.

Mr. Haycock won distinction as a courier on the staff of General Munford, and although but a youth his service won the personal commendation of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, his cavalry leader, with whom he established a lasting friendship.

Miss Le Grand lived on a large plantation near old Appomattox Courthouse not far from the scene of the surrender. She recalls vividly the events of the great struggle, and tells many interesting stories of the events about Appomattox, in sight of her home.

Of all the history written before her eyes, Mrs. Haycock declares that one event stands out above all others. That the great shout that went up from the two armies, when it became known that the war was over.

To her, she says, it carried a great personal message of joy. Her betrothed was coming back. After their marriage at Appomattox, the young couple determined to start anew, and they came to Georgetown.

Mrs. Haycock is closely related to the Hunters, Andersons and Walkers, of southern Virginia. She is a direct descendant of Pierre Le Grand, one of the Huguenot settlers of Maryland, established in 1683 by French refugees. Mr. Haycock is connected with the Gonnells, Broadwaters, and Hunters, of Fairfax and Loudoun counties.

Served With Washington.

Charles Broadwater and Peter Le Grand, their blood relatives, were prominent members of the Virginia house of burgesses at the same time that Washington, Jefferson, and Patrick Henry were burgesses.

In all there are twenty-seven children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren at the Haycock home in old Cook's park today, including W. Hunter Haycock, superintendent of mails of the Washington city postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. Haycock were blessed with ten children, eight of whom are living and married. They are Mrs. J. German, of Charlottesville, Va.; Mrs. Harold M. Calkins, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Marion L. Haycock, of Portsmouth, Va.; Dr. C. C. Haycock, of Wilburton, Okla.; W. Hunter Haycock, A. Marshall Haycock, Robert L. Haycock, and Mrs. H. N. Heacock, of Washington.

Two of Mrs. Haycock's sisters are present at the celebration. Mrs. Charles W. Hancock, of Appomattox, and Mrs. Charles A. Abney, of Crofton, Va. Mrs. Anne S. Le Grand, widow of Lieut. Thomas E. Le Grand, is also in attendance, as are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. Smith, cousins of Appomattox.

Mr. Haycock is seventy-two years old and Mrs. Haycock seventy.

Sentence Suspended as Alimony Is Provided

A sentence of one year at Occoquan was suspended today by Justice Siddons, in Criminal Court, No. 1, in the case of Joseph Harkness, Jr., on the stipulation that he pay through the probation officer $100 a month for the support and maintenance of Ruth S. Harkness, his fourteen-month-old daughter.

Harkness was indicted January 18 for non-support of his minor child. He was arrested in Great Falls, Mont., early this month, and brought here for trial.

TELEPHONE COMPANY HAS BIG INCREASE

Report Shows Forty-one Million Dollars Net as Earnings in the Past Year.

The annual report of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company for 1915, issued today, gives the net earnings of the company as $41,117,457.28, an increase of $59,560.39 over 1914. The interest charges were $6,488,947.72, and the dividends at the regular rate of 8 per cent were $29,160,601.63. Of the resulting balance there was carried to reserves $2,500,000 and to surplus $4,913,048.82.

The gross revenue of the Bell system, not including the connecting independent companies, was $228,900,000, an increase of $13,500,000 over the previous year. Of this total operation consumed $4,500,000; taxes $13,100,000; current maintenance, $11,200,000; and provision for depreciation $4,500,000. The surplus available for charges was $65,200,000, of which $18,100,000 was paid in interest and $22,200,000 was paid in dividends.

In Bell System.

During the past eight years, according to the report, the gross earnings of the Bell system have increased $111,300,000, while the assets have increased nearly $115,000,000, with an increase of capital obligations and payables outstanding of only $12,000,000.

The Bell system now connects 3,151,221 telephones, a gain of half a million stations in the past year. The revival of general business, company officials say, is reflected by a growth of 22,500 subscribers' stations in the second half of the year, as against 125,200 during the same period in 1914.

In his statement President Theodore N. Vail touches briefly on the company's position before the public—the effect of the war and preparedness.

Supplies Are Shorter.

On account of the war, he says that there has been much difficulty in obtaining many of the supplies needed in telephone manufacture, and the engineering department of the company has been active in providing substitutes. A new kind of insulating paper for cables of which some two million miles is used in a year, has been provided and new alloys found for chemicals used in batteries.

Begin Hot Water Drinking If You Don't Feel Right

Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is full of aching; if what you eat turns and turns gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow, and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

To feel like young folks feel; like you felt before your blood, nerves, and muscles became loaded with body impurities, get from your pharmacist a quarter pound of limestone phosphate which is inexpensive and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge, which is not unpleasant.

Just as soap and hot water act on the skin, cleansing, sweetening, and freshening so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. Men and women who are usually constipated, bilious, head-achy or have any stomach disorder should begin this inside bathing before breakfast. They are assured they will become real cranks on the subject shortly.—Adv.

GREAT OIL SUPPLY OPENED UP BY SALE

Experts of Geological Survey Declare Resources of Western States Inexhaustible.

An inexhaustible supply of oil may be obtained from the shale of northwestern Colorado, northwestern Utah, and southwestern Wyoming, according to experts of the Geological Survey. This shale contains materials which when heated may be converted into crude oil, gas and ammonia.

The oil derived from the shale is similar to that which is being produced in oil wells. When refined by ordinary methods, the shale oils yield about 10 per cent gasoline, 35 per cent kerosene, and a large amount of paraffine.

The yield of gasoline from the shale can probably be largely increased, however, it is declared. The gas, which is a very good illuminating gas, will, perhaps, be sufficient to furnish all the heat required to distill the crude oil from the shale.

The high cost of distilling oil from shale as compared to the cost of producing oil from wells has thus far prevented the development in this country of such an industry, and may continue to prevent it for some time, but sooner or later this great source of supply will be utilized, it is declared by the survey experts.

For Alleged Defamation

Gladye Speer, an infant, by her father, George R. Speer, today filed in the District Supreme Court, a suit to recover $10,000 damages from Florence M. Wilkinson.

The defendant is accused of writing a defamatory letter and libel against Gladye Speer on September 7 last. The petition was filed by Attorney P. H. Marshall.
